

Pastor John Thompson (M.Min) has served in Christian ministry leadership since 1998. He received Christ as savior and lord in April of 1997 and shortly thereafter accepted his call to ministry. Serving under the leadership of Pastor James C. Williams Sr., of God's Heritage Full Gospel Ministries of Maywood, IL., Pastor John began in ministry setting up and breaking down the church sound system weekly, this continued for approximately 3 years. A student of Liberty University, and a graduate of Christian Bible Institute and Seminary, Pastor John has been a Sunday School Leader, Bible Study Organizer, Evangelism Ministry Leader, Men's Ministry Leader, Ministerial Staff Leader, Licensed Minister, Ordained Elder, Associate Pastor and Co-Pastor. Pastor John has reorganized ministry operations, began new ministries, written ministry doctrinal statements and established church discipline procedures. Pastor John has served at God's Heritage Full Gospel Ministries (4/1997 – 9/2010), Triumph Community Church (9/2010 – 4/2017), New Covenant Full Gospel Church (4/2017 – Present)

Pastor John is married to Rena (Aug. 1997), his college sweetheart and they have 5 sons. He is devoted to the physical, spiritual, mental, and emotional welfare of his family. He was raised by his grandparents, to whom, through God, he credits his growth and maturity. Raised alongside his aunts and uncles, Pastor John brings "old school" common sense to a 21st century generation with practical, simplified bible teaching that he hopes will enlighten, edify, and empower the hearer to achieve all they can for God's glory.
